

This bill, HR4026, is a blatant attempt to strafe competition and protect vested big business interests. The consumer and public are certainly harmed by this bill through reduced choice and lack of alternative media access. Your charter is supposed to be the protection of public interest not protection of the vested interest of big business. I vote and I will certainly vote against anyone who votes for this bill.